

Work of Heart

Challenge

Win a staff celebration for your facility while showing your support for nursing education this Valentine's Day!

On Wednesday, Feb. 14, take a 10-minute break with your co-workers and support LTPAC nurse scholarships by joining the AAPACN Education Foundation Work of Heart Challenge.

Participation is easy and fun!

The Challenge: Working as a four-person team, build a structure using only the heart suit cards from four decks of playing cards.

The Materials Needed: Four decks of cards, a table, a yard stick or measuring tape, a timer, and a phone camera.

The Rules:

1. Form a team of four people and each individual pledges a $14 donation to the AAPACN Education Foundation to participate. There is no limit to the number of teams per facility so challenge other staff in your building and other facilities within your organization. Ask your co-workers and friends to sponsor your team for a $56 donation per team.
2. Remove all the heart suit cards from four decks of playing cards.
3. Set a timer for 10 minutes.
4. Using only the heart playing cards, build a structure with your team.
5. Complete your team structure within the 10-minute time limit, then measure the height of the structure and take a photo of your team with the structure.
6. Submit your team information and photo by Feb. 16. using the QR code below.
7. Submit your individual, team, and facility donations to the AAPACN Education Foundation by Feb. 16. A link to the donation form can also be found using the QR code below. **Note: Be sure to select "Dedicate this donation in honor or in memory of someone" and enter your team's name and facility in the space provided to ensure the donation is properly attributed to your team.*

Two Ways to Win!

1. The team with the tallest heart card structure will win a $100 Visa gift card to be used for a facility celebration of their choosing.
2. The facility that raises the most money above $200 will win a $200 Visa gift card to be used for a facility celebration of their choosing.

